The Next Six Day Challenge

*Reminders:

Our Moses - In the Footsteps of a Reluctant Prophet Bible Study will rotate on the following schedule: La Grange 09/18; Durham 09/25; Mt. Olivet 10/02; La Grange 10/09; Durham; 10/17 (NO STUDY) 10/23; the final study will be at Mt. Olivet 10/30, with Potluck before. The study will be from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The last night of the study we will have a carry-in Jewish potluck at Mt. Olivet. We will pass around a sign-up sheet for who is bringing entrée, vegetable, bread, wine/juice, and/or dessert. Each Monday the study will move from one church to the next, and that church will host the study for the night, and they will provide beverages and snacks for everyone.

*Getting Started

"I have wondered at times what the Ten Commandments would have looked like if Moses had run them through the US Congress."

— Ronald Reagan

"The five points of yama, together with the five points of niyama, remind us of the Ten Commandments of the Christian and Jewish faiths, as well as of the ten virtues of Buddhism. In fact, there is no religion without these moral or ethical codes. All spiritual life should be based on these things. They are the foundation stones without which we can never build anything lasting. (127)"

— Swami Satchidananda, The Yoga Sutras

Digging Deeper

The Ten Commandments (also known as the Decalogue) are ten laws in the Bible that God gave to the nation of Israel shortly after the exodus from Egypt. The Ten Commandments are essentially a summary of the 613 commandments contained in the Old Testament Law. The first four commandments deal with our relationship with God. The last six commandments deal with our relationships with one another. The Ten Commandments are recorded in the Bible in Exodus 20:1-17 and Deuteronomy 5:6-21.

Memory Verses: Exodus 20:20 20 Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning."

Further Study

Read the entire book of Exodus and Adam Hamilton's Book "Moses - In the Footsteps of a Reluctant Prophet."

Bringing it Home

We all know millions of people have literally lost their homes, their belongings, and some families even their loved ones, because of the wrath of Hurricane's Irma, Jose, and Harvey. We are going to do an all-inclusive mission trip, June 18th - June 23rd, 2018 to Houston, Texas. This means your entire family is invited, and we would like to see as many of you as possible mark off these dates, and plan on attending, at least for part of the trip. (This will be our Youth Mission Trip for the year as well.) If you would like to be on the committee for this, please let Dana Reid or Pastor Harold Long know.
